  - US May New-Home Sales Plunge To Record Low: New-home sales plunge to a record low, dropping 32.7% to an annual rate of 300,000 in May, as buyers faced a lackluster job market without a longtime government subsidy for purchases. Economists expected sales to drop by 20.6%.
  - US Oil Supplies Rise By 2M Barrels: U.S. crude inventories show a large, unexpected increase last week, but the 762,000-barrel drop in gasoline supplies bucks analysts' expectations.
  - BOE's Sentance Sought Rate Hike In June: The majority of Bank of England Monetary Policy Committee members voted to keep rates on hold in June, but Andrew Sentance called for a 0.25% hike, marking the first time in almost two years that a policymaker has voted for tightening.
  - US Mortgages Show Improvement In 1Q: The share of performing U.S. mortgages increases slightly to 87.3% during the first quarter for the first time since March 2009, though loan performance was still down from a year ago, federal bank regulators report.
  - US Mortgage Application Volume Drops 5.9%: Volume of mortgage applications filed in the U.S. last week falls a seasonally adjusted 5.9% from the previous week, says MBA, mostly on a slowdown in refinancing.
  - Cost Of Insuring Greek Debt Surges: The cost of insuring Greek sovereign debt rises sharply, hitting its highest level since May 7, amid low levels of liquidity and widening in the country's government bond spread.
  - BP Formalizes Handover Of Gulf Cleanup Responsibility: BP formalizes the handover of responsibility for the Gulf of Mexico oil spill containment and cleanup operation from embattled CEO Tony Hayward to Robert Dudley.
    - Cameron Wants 'Strong, Stable' BP
    - BP, Chevron Agree On Deal For China Block
    - Draft US Law Closes Loophole For BP
  - Obama Plans Comments On McChrystal Soon: President Obama will make remarks shortly about Gen. Stanley A. McChrystal, the embattled commander of U.S. and NATO troops in Afghanistan. The Washington Post reports. The two had a half-hour meeting in the White House this morning.
  - GM In Talks To Increase Auto Loan Availability: General Motors is negotiating with financial institutions to broaden availability of auto loans, a strategy that
